ABOUT
US

We are an On-Line platform that increase Software developers productivity

We help our clients to improve their software elaboration processes through code generation by graphic interfaces, reducing time and cost of development.

CODIUM solutions were developed by an analysis of the most relevant needs in software market, following the current applications tendencies and using the most efficient systems available that allows users to design and develop in a reliable and controlled environment.

WE ARE CODIUM

CODIUM is an applications ecosystem for development and management of IT projects in an fully online environment.

Allowing development of web, mobile and computer applications by graphic interfaces 100% standardized code is generated, fully readable for different programming languages with the methodology What You See What You Get (WYSWYG).
Our platform is circumscribed under the Low-Code industry.

"What you see graphically while programming, is what users will see on their devices"

COMPETITIVE
ADVANTAGES

CODIUM is the total solution for your project's development

01 Scalable
Any programming language could be integrated.

02 Native
Code generation according with the technology.

03 Expandable
Native code and libraries can be inserted.

04 Integral
All teams together: development, design and administration under same environment.

05 Visual
Results are obtained at real time as you create and modelling.

06 Fast
Additional to time development optimization (60% - 80% faster), technical and administrative documentation is generated.
